"We are learning together to build a better world."

March 24th, 2010

Dear Parents,

Thanks to our wonderful PAC, the entire school will be travelling to the Sea to Sky Outdoor School at Camp Elphinstone on April 13th, 2010! We'll be exploring the creeks, walking down the beach, playing games and maybe (if the weather's okay) going canoeing in Voyageur canoes! The whole day, including the bus trip is being paid for by our PAC to celebrate our wonderful school! Thank you Sechelt Elementary PAC parents!

What students NEED to bring (in a backpack):

- Comfortable, close-toe shoes (like running shoes – NO sandals)
- Raingear NO MATTER WHAT THE WEATHER FORECAST
- Sun protection (sun screen/hat)
- Warm jacket/hoodie or vest
- A packed lunch, including EXTRA snacks
- FULL 1 liter water bottle (used pop bottles are okay)
- Personal medications, like asthma puffers, epipens, etc.
- OPTIONAL ITEMS (if you've got them and want to bring them)
 - Binoculars, sketchbooks/journals with pens/pencils
 - Waterproof camera

What students CAN'T BRING!!!!!!:

- iPods or ANY music player/Cell Phones/Video Games/Knives/Weapons

Attached are consent forms from Sea to Sky and the school. These forms must be filled out and returned to the school. Anyone who does not have a consent form will not be allowed to go. We also have room for 10 lucky parent volunteers. Volunteer positions will be filled on a first come, first serve basis and volunteers MUST have a current criminal record check.

Thank You,

Mrs. Susan Budgell
Principal
